Brethren,

June is here and we are full swing into the summer months. It's not so hot yet that dogs chase cats at a walk, but it is getting close.

Our Masonic calendar for this coming month is a bit on the light side, but that is due to the one major event which takes place this month: Arizona Grand Lodge.

The first Thursday-Saturday of June is when Grand Lodge is in session, and it is a quite an event if you have not been before. If you haven't, I strongly urge you to go. Grand Lodge is open to all Master Masons, though only the sitting WM and S/JW of a Lodge, and PM's may vote on legislation. GL is where the future of Masonry in our State is directed, and the rules/regs are hammered out or changed. Sometimes things can get quite lively, as past attendees can attest, but it is always a learning experience. This session will be held in Scottsdale at the Chaparral Suites Resort. Visit the Arizona Grand Lodge website for more details:

A reminder to all that because of Grand Lodge, our regularly stated meeting for June is pushed back one week to June 11th. We still plan to have a meal beforehand at 6pm, so by all means, come out and join us. We will be having a bit of Masonic Education that evening, presented by our very own Bro. Mike Smolenak (SD).

Keep an eye on the website for more information. I look forward to seeing you at the next meeting!

Dear Sisters & Brothers:

Dan and I would like to thank all of those who helped us to the East. Your knowledge, devotion, and care have been a blessing. There is still so much to learn, but with your help, we'll have a successful and fun year.

A new year has begun for Casa Grande Chapter #28 of The Order of the Eastern Star. Are you ready? Our first meeting before summer vacation will be June 8th at 7:30 P.M. Come and enjoy Nora Tallent's delicious Spring Rolls after our meeting. You won't want to miss them!
